

General Jurisdiction (JS 610)

Jumpstart your judicial career!

This course supplements state-sponsored judicial education by providing a solid foundation in the substance and theories that all new judges should have beginning their career on the bench. You are immersed in the core competencies of your profession.

The communication and listening skills learned in this course will enable the participants to communicate more effectively in their courtrooms and with court staff.

During this course, you will learn to:

- Rule on evidence more confidently;
- Manage your courtroom and individual cases, including cases involving self-represented litigants;
- Handle juries and sentencing more effectively;
- Make fair and unbiased decisions;
- Communicate more effectively from the bench;
- Summarize and apply developments in civil case techniques;
- Rule on evidence more confidently;
- Create an appropriate case flow management system for your court;
- Address electronically stored information discovery issues; and
- Develop tools to address media inquiry and social media use in your courtroom.

October 14-24, 2024
Reno, NV

Tuition: $2,199

Conference Fee: $709

Scholarships may be available.
Apply during registration.

For more information & to register: judges.org/gjfall

CLE/CJE credit hour estimates are 55 hours with 2.5 - 4 hours towards ethics. Estimated credits are subject to change based upon final agenda provided on start date of course.

This course qualifies for 4 credits toward the Master of Judicial Studies Degree Program and Judicial Studies Doctoral Program at the University of Nevada, Reno upon successful completion of the course and passing the course exam.

The National Judicial College is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action, ADA organization, and admits participants of any age, race, color, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, and national or ethnic origin.